

Women Artists of the West

Women's Fine Art in Numerous Subjects & Mediums . . . Across the United States

Amy Evans

Amy rediscovered painting over ten years ago when she and her family moved to Denver, CO. She enrolled in a watercolor class at the Art Students League and has been painting ever since. In Colorado, Amy began painting the landscape and found that plein air painting was her passion, combining her love of the outdoors with her love of painting.

Amy holds a B.A. with Distinction in Art from Rhodes College, Memphis, TN. She also has studied at the Art Students League of Denver and the former Taos Institute of Art, Taos, NM. Amy has studied with Carl Dalio, Doug Dawson, L. Diane Johnson, Frank Lalumia, Fran Larson, Kevin MacPherson, Kathryn Stats, Anita West, Teresa Vito, and Barbara Zaring. She has been an art instructor for middle and high school students as well as adults.

Amy's paintings have been in exhibits and galleries across the United States. One of her paintings was recently chosen for the annual Breckenridge Music Festival poster. She is a juried associate member of Oil Painters of America, 2nd Vice President/Show Chair of Women Artists of the West, signature member of Plein Air Artists of Colorado, a member of the American Impressionist Society, and a charter and founding member of the Piedmont Outdoor Painting Society, based in Winston-Salem, North Carolina.
