Women's Fine Art in Numerous Subjects & Mediums . . . Across the United States

Deborah McAllister

Born in Wisconsin, traveling, and living in Arizona gave Deborah McAllister the art bug; she “can’t wait to paint the beauty” around her. She interprets the landscape in colors that go beyond nature; working with oil or watercolor, in a loose, impressionistic style of realism. Her goal is “to communicate the beauty of God’s handiwork.”

Deborah graduated from the Colorado Institute of Art and worked in the advertising industry before devoting herself to painting and raising her family. She studied with instructors Zoltan Szabo, Tony Couch, and Don Sahli.

Her current work is inspired by the landscape, especially plein air painting. She spends her summers exhibiting in art festivals and teaching workshops.

Deborah is a Signature Member of the Colorado Watercolor Society and Plein Air Artists Colorado; and a member of Oil Painters of America, and International Plein Air Painters. She has mounted three Solo shows and exhibited nationally since 2002, winning Collectors’ Choice and Peoples’ Choice awards in plein air events.
