

Women Artists of the West

Women's Fine Art in Numerous Subjects & Mediums . . . Across the United States

“Little Mischief”

Margo Petterson

Primarily known for her impressionistic oils, Margo Petterson's trademark has always been her “Feminine West” series, depicting the women of the early west. She has also become known in recent years for her equine art, focusing mainly on Draft Horses, the wild mustangs and Indian paints of the western prairie.

Her recent paintings can be seen at the Cattlemen's Western Art Show in Paso Robles, CA; Calgary Stampede in Calgary, Canada; the C.M. Russell Art Auction in Great Falls, Mt.; Draft Horse Classic in Grass Valley, Ca., and the Empire 100 Western Art Show, Miniatures by the Lake, Coeur d'Alene, ID.

Her work can be seen in selected galleries including Spirits in the Wind Gallery, Golden, CO; Artistic Viewpoints Gallery, Gardnerville, NV; Diamond West Gallery, Pinetop, AZ; Open Range Art, Great Falls, MT.

Membership in professional organizations include Signature Member of the Women Artists of the West, Equine Art Guild, Artist Member of the California Art Club, Associate Member of the American Academy of Equine Art. Petterson has won numerous awards including Best of Show at the Draft Horse Classic, Western States Horse Expo, Snake River Showcase. She was 2003 Poster Artist for the Cowboy Poetry Festival in Big Bear Lake, California. She lives with her husband in the High Sierra's, in Coleville, CA.