

Women Artists of the West

Women's Fine Art in Numerous Subjects & Mediums . . . Across the United States

Patricia Breen Roberts

Inspired by trips to Taos and Santa Fe in the 1960's Patricia Breen Roberts began intensive art studies and painting in oils and pastels. She attended the University of Colorado and Rocky Mountain School of Art in Denver and with many renowned artists.

For over 40 years she has continued her progress, winning awards, including Best of Show at Colorado Artists Guild show at the Botanic Gardens in Denver in 2004.

Patricia has been exhibited in many juried shows including "From the Garden" in Lakewood, CO where she has won awards and has been shown in one woman exhibits at the Joan R. Duncan Galleries of Koelbel Library, Greenwood Village, Colorado.